Telč

Jindřiška Adamcová, 16 years old: Previously, I was very unfamiliar with Jews and their culture, even though I had learnt a lot about this topic from literature. Now I know about the fates of individual people. Many of them were students of my age. They had similar pleasures but their lives ended so differently. Leader - Božena Kadeřávková, 59 years old: The project "Neighbours Who Disappeared from Telč" started with only slight memories of the Taub family and their three children. After one and a half year of searching, our common knowledge about our families and our children broadened to such an extent that we have come to realise our research will be a never-ending story.

Pavel Adamec, 13 years old: I'm interested in the history of World War II, a period that cannot be seen separately from the fate of the Jews. I wanted to learn more about it, so I went to meetings with people who witnessed the war. I found several answers to the question: "What was it like in Telč?" Katka Opatrná, 15 years old: I first heard about the Holocaust in a meeting with Mr. Spitzer. He was deported to Terezín when he was exactly as old as I am now. I can't imagine how I would manage in such a situation. Ondra Kouřík, 15 years old: I visited an old Jewish cemetery with my national history class and I wondered who were those people who had to stay apart from the others even after their deaths? Klára Křížková, 16 years old: Of the several tragic destinies that I got to know, there was at least one with a happy ending. What's more, our searching helped two childhood friends - Mr. Hahn and Mr. Spitzer - to meet again after almost 70 years.

Members of the national history group at the Children's After-school Activity Center in Telč, together with students of Otakar Březina High school in Telč... worked on this project.
